Fight In Southern State Not Yet Ended, According To Reports

(By Associated Press)
Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 13.—Suffragists won another preliminary victory in the legislature today when a motion to table the minority report urging no action on the ratification of the federal suffrage amendment, was tabled in the Senate today by a vote of 23 to 10.

It was the first definite indication of the strength of the opposing forces. Seventeen votes were necessary for ratification in the Senate. Both galleries and the floor were crowded with spectators when the session began today with the prospect of at least two hours debate.

THE DUNCANNON DISTRICT LOOMS UP

The Duncannon district, which has heretofore not been recognized as a very extensive tobacco growing territory, owing to the fact that the landowners have not largely dealt in the raising of the weed, promises to come in for its own this season, since it is estimated that three times the acreage of any past year is being devoted to the popular product this season. The result is that there are many new buildings in the way of tobacco sheds and some very good tobacco barns being built.

The record for the district, beginning on the J. C. Mason farm, two miles east of the city, last year was out of the ordinary, and there are many more acres to attract this year. There is an elegant new barn being constructed there to care for the crop after it has been grown. Another new building is on the Thomas Black farm to the east of the Mason farm and this is expected to house a great quantity of tobacco this year, since there are several acres of very promising tobacco. This territory last year produced some of the best tobacco to be found in this part of the state. On the Thomas and Howard Chenault farms are scenes of considerable new building, since new barns are being erected there, and they have a large acreage of tobacco also. There are but a few of those representing this district this year. The building has been hampered by the scarcity of lumber.

There will be accommodations for a limited number and applications will be received by the young women at New Haven until August 16. According to the plans, there will be horse back riding through the hills and valleys near the camp and the patrons will be given every comfort possible and entertained royally, since this will be one of the features of the outing and has been given and the patrons will be given every head of the organization. ### Presidential Fight To Be Opened In Madison County By Brilliant Congressman

The presidential campaign in Madison county will be opened Saturday, August 21, when Congressman Alben W. Barkley, of Paducah, will speak on behalf of Cox, Roosevelt and Gilbert.

Congressman Barkley made a great speech during the last state campaign here, and delighted a big assemblage. That he will be greeted by a great throng when he comes to Richmond again goes without saying. He is a magnetic and eloquent speaker and gives the boys the gospel of old-fashioned democracy in a way that pleases everyone. He has played a big part in national affairs at Washington, and is one of the leaders in the Kentucky congressional delegation.

ASSOCIATION OF BAPTISTS MEETING

The meeting of the Tate's Creek Association will be a two-day affair at Mt. Tabor Baptist church, Paint Lick August 24-25, for which occasion there has been an extensive program arranged. The meeting will be called to order by Moderator Elliott Tudor, of Richmond, and there promises to be considerable business for Clerk A. T. Ross, of Georgetown. There will be reports from the various churches representing the association relative to the 75 million dollar campaign fund being created, and according to advanced reports, there will be a creditable showing by the association for this section of the state. The quota for Kentucky is large, but the big corps of workers, feel assured the state will not be delinquent in the important work. There will be reports concerning the collection of this fund here and the amount raised by the various churches. Mr. Edward Feathergill, of Berea, treasurer of the association, will also lecture regarding the progress of the work in this vicinity. Rev. O. O. Green of Richmond, chairman of the executive committee, will tender a report on and deliver a talk about the great fund which is to revolutionize this denomination throughout the country.

ARMY OF WORKMEN STOPPED BY RAIN

The frequent rains, which have been a boon to farmers, have stopped an army of workers, since the extensive improvement and construction in general throughout Madison county, and it is extensive, has been held up, the second week passing without any perceptible progress being made.

The street work in the city is but one of the numerous improvement jobs interfered with, since there are many tobacco barns in Madison county under course of construction, which, owing to the difficulty in securing lumber, may not be finished until time for cutting tobacco. It is estimated that two scores of large tobacco barns are now being built in Madison county. Many of the structures are but half finished, owing to the interference of the weather and difficulty in securing material even at the high prices.

The numerous road improvement jobs, which it was hoped would be completed within the next six weeks, to insure good weather and the completion before the arrival of cold weather, are not being touched this week, the condition of the roads making this impossible. The workmen have returned to the city and are taking a forced vacation. However, they hope to be able to resume work soon. County Road Engineer Baxter is becoming concerned over the delay owing to the weather, since it was expected to have had a number of the highways needing but little work finished by this time.

PAINT LICK GIRL DEAD

Relatives and friends will regret to hear of the death of Miss Vedda Ballard Williams at Asheville, N. C., on Wednesday morning, August 11, after an illness of several months of tuberculosis. She was 14 years of age and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edd Williams, of Paint Lick. Mr. Williams and family have been in Asheville for several weeks, hoping that a change of climate would benefit the daughter, but to no avail. Besides her parents and two sisters, Misses Willie and Norma Price Williams, she is survived by many relatives and friends who will mourn the loss of one so young and one whose life was so full of promise.

CONSUMPTION OF GASOLINE GREATER

During the month of July 276,000 gallons of gasoline were required for operating the motor vehicles of Madison county, this being the greatest amount in the history of the city, as far as is known, and the report shows a decided increase over the month of June, when the first strict was kept, owing to the new law. The report rendered by County Clerk Jennings Maupin is to the effect that a material increase will be shown; however, it is believed that a number of dealers have thus far failed to account for all gasoline they have been credited with. The matter is attracting the attention of state officials and it is very evident that there will be an investigation made with the result that prosecution will follow, since the violation of the law marks a very flagrant and dangerous proceeding. The matter of collecting the tax due the state for its sale is not up to the county officials as many may suppose. It is up to the wholesaler, and in case he fails to make a proper report, or any report at all, he is the one taking the chances.

In some localities, and Madison county is said to be no exception, there are failures to report the volume of business done in the way of gasoline sales. Just what course the state will pursue regarding this alleged violation of the law is not known, but it is hinted the movement incident to an investigation has been under way for some time and the first of the reported tardy dealers will know will be the fact they will be apprised of their shortcoming by some state sleuth.

SHIPPERS DODGE FREIGHT INCREASE

Fur Caps and Rubber Boots, Overcoats and All Rushed To Purchaser

Look and you may be able to see your winter fur cap or hip boots at the store, since there are shipments of winter wear galore arriving every day, and they promise to continue. One would think this was in the Arctic circle by the character of fall and winter goods arriving, but the warning has been sent out, and the freight rates are going up—that's the reason.

There has not been a time in years, that railway freight has been as extensive as at present, and it is said to be due to the fact that thousands of purchasers of merchandise especially with the exception of the way period, who have ordered goods for later delivery, are receiving it now. There is a general disposition upon the part of the manufacturers also, who want to dodge the extra cost of shipping, which will be in evidence within a few weeks, and it is also upon their part that the goods are being shipped for the fall trade at an earlier period than usual. It is said that local shipments from various parts of the country are already as great as can be accommodated, but there is an unprecedented rush on that bids fair to equal that on bargain days at the ribbon counter.

"Get in before the advance" seems to be the slogan, and many merchants who ordered goods for fall delivery are not only receiving the bills, but are being informed that all shipments made immediately will be "important," both to the receiver and producer. This is an evident fact when the sharp advance in shipping rates of the railways is given consideration. The freight yards are scenes of unusual activity, and it is the belief of railroad men that the rush has not reached its zenith, since there are almost two weeks in which to make deliveries at the present rate. Merchants, as a result, are beginning to arrange for the acceptance of the stocks for fall and winter, which, they have been informed, will be forthcoming now at any time.

AMERICAN LEGION NEWS

Tyndall, the national treasurer, showing its debt as having gone down at a rate of nearly $1,000 a day for five months the American Legion will be clear of financial obligations by January 1, 1921, should that rate be continued. In the period between January 31 and June 30 the deficit was cut from $343,648 to $197,214, a total reduction of $146,433, or almost $30,000 a month.

CUPID THWARTED; LICENSE REFUSED

Apparently not a bit superstitious, but "tough luck," was the ultimatum of a man, who gave his age as 24, accompanied by a winsome girl, apparently 12 or 14, wearing a short dress, claiming Augusta as her home, when the final decree was handed down by County Clerk Jennings Maupin, the point of issue being a marriage.

In a downpour, the day being Friday, the 13th, the next number on the marriage license docket 113, the couple appeared undaunted. Deputy County Clerk Rodes Terrill took in the situation at once, and then exercised a little diplomacy, and spared for time. She presented a note said to have been from her father, which was doubted, as was her statement regarding her age, which she gave as 21. County Clerk Maupin came to the rescue, and refused to issue the certificate. "If that girl is over 12, I'm a hundred," soliloquized Deputy Clerk Terrill, as the disappointed couple left the office. "Tough luck," reiterated the disappointed groom-to-be.

KENTUCKIANS WORKING PLAN TO PROCURE COAL

Mine operators are not agreed as to whether Kentucky manufacturers ought to buy coal now, regardless of price, or hold off for a possible future reduction, according to a bulletin sent out yesterday to members of the Kentucky Manufacturers' Association by C. C. Ousley.

Louisville, according to one operator, should depend on Western Kentucky at present, as far as possible, as its source of supply. This, he said, is because Eastern Kentucky coal is in "frantic demand by steel and automobile plants."

Furniture workers' strike which has been on at Evansville for several months, is booked to end with a settlement this week.

EX-SERVICE MEN TO ATTEND NORMAL

Noted Athletes Will Stimulate and Increase Athletic Work At Institution

According to present indications, there will be at least 40 disabled ex-service men at Eastern Normal during the next term and some of them comprise some of the most noted athletes to be found and this, according to the opinion of Prof. G. M. Hembree, new athletic director, will prove some of the best material ever in the ranks of the institution. The new law giving the ex-service men the free features connected with the study may bring even a greater number of soldiers and sailors to the city and plans are being made for housing them now. Conferences have been held with Mr. Stone Normal, in charge of the local Red Cross department who has promised every assistance in placing the men during the school term. Some of them are said to have enviable reputations in the army during the recent war, and their instruction and general participation in the athletic work at the school is expected to be highly beneficial and bring the standard of sports to a higher degree than was ever before attained.

Prof. Hembree, who will have charge of the work, has arrived in Richmond for a stay to acquaint himself with the situation. He will map out his line of work for the year later, and it is believed, according to his recommendations, that there will be a decided stimulus in the way of new sports introduced. Mr. Hembree, who succeeds Prof. C. F. McCoy, comes recommended very highly. The latter has accepted a position as athletic director at the city schools of Knoxville, Tenn., and will soon report there to begin his duties.

The federal board of vocational education has had a representative here who will also assist in arranging for quartering the men.

AN IMMENSE GASER BROUGHT IN NEAR GLASGOW

A big gas well has been reported from, south of Glasgow, in Barren county, at a depth of 77 feet. The well was estimated at 50,000,000 feet when it came in. It is said that the roar of gas could be heard for ten miles, the force being so strong that the tools, weighing more than 2,000 pounds, were shot far above the drill mast, the bit has not yet been found, and there was a crack in the ground around the well an inch wide.
